

Alexander Ryrie (Whisky Merchant) bought the Railway Inn in 1862, this now forms the older West Room at Ryries; under his descendants this became the Haymarket Inn and eventually the Ground Floor became unified as Ryrie's Bar. The room with its elegant Grand Thistle Wallpaper & Antique Mirrors is the perfect place to lounge before a quick dash to Haymarket Station to catch your train.

Ryrie's Public Bar was rebuilt in 1868 and remodelled in 1906 by renowned Brewers Architect Robert McFarlane Cameron who was also responsible for the design of our Company - D.M. Stewart Ltd.'s Flagship Pub the Guildford Arms (1896). The Bar boasts 8 Real Ale Taps, Craft & Imported Beers plus some great Whisky expressions to please enthusiasts.

D.M. Stewart Ltd restored Ryrie's in 2022 and converted the upstairs Dining Room to a new Cocktail Bar & Dining Room. A good range of Gins compliments our Cocktail List. Our Wine List features 6 Great Wineries.

Food & Coffee are served throughout the premises with the food emphasis on Sharing Bowls & Plates.
